MAN AFTER YOUR OWN HEART

Your purchase of this Hi-Lo Plus Performance Track gives you more versatility than ever before in choosing your accompaniment. You can now sing great songs in the range that best suits your voice — whether HI, MEDIUM or LOW — either with or without background vocals. This series offers traditional as well as contemporary titles with the highest quality arrangements.

Hi-Lo Plus keys have been selected to give you the maximum usable ranges. Experiment with them. In most circumstances the keys are only a third apart (four half-steps). If the Hi key is just a little too high for your vocal range, try the medium key, etc.

While these tracks are recorded on high-quality Chrome tape (CrO₂), you will find the "normal" bias setting to be the best for performance. If you hear too much tape hiss, you may want to try setting your machine on Dolby (Dolby B if available). In very rare cases, you may experience a "phasing" problem (caused by the head alignment being off on a cassette deck — much like a car out of alignment), you can delete this problem by using only one of the channels — left or right — for your performance. Simply disconnect one of the RCA plugs from the "play" (or "out") on your cassette deck.

MAN AFTER YOUR OWN HEART

Words and Music by Wayne Kirkpatrick and
Billy Luz Sprague

O God, Father in heaven and earth
I call to You like deep calls to deep over water
Show me Your endless measure of grace
Let tender mercies
Shine once again from Your holy face

Deep in my soul there's a craving
To please the One who has saved me

O God, though I have fallen so far
You know that I'm still a man after Your own heart

I am driven by rivers of pride
You are my rescue, the Maker and Keeper of my life
Lead me by the still waters again
Use me in spite of the prodigal child that You know I am

Just as a deer runs to water
So does my soul to You, Father

O God, though I have wandered so far
You know that I'm still a man after Your own heart

Just as a deer runs to water
So does my soul to You, Father

O God, though I have wandered so far
You know that I'm still a man after Your own heart

I'm still a man after Your own heart

1961 seems to have been a year of economy for the Stanley Brothers. For most of the year, the core of their group was a three-piece unit which consisted of Carter and Ralph Stanley plus their legendary sideman George Shuffler. For a number of park appearances that were made that summer, this was the line-up for the Stanley Brothers and the Clinch Mountain Boys. It was this trio which showed up at New River Ranch in Rising Sun, Maryland on August 27, 1961. They were augmented on the show by Jack Cooke, then a main-stay in the Baltimore, Maryland area. Local musician Carl Hawkins played mandolin on a few songs from their evening performance at New River.

Country music in general, and bluegrass in particular, was still reeling from the impact of rock and roll. The Stanleys weathered the storm by working in Florida under the auspices of the Jim Walter Corporation, builders of pre-fabricated homes in the south. But, attendance at show dates was way down and the Stanleys, and many other bands, scaled down to meet to the economic challenges. Even though times were slim, they seemed to be staying busy. They recorded three albums for King Records that year ("Old Time Camp Meeting," "Sing The Songs They Like Best," and "Folk Song Festival"). Concerts included the recently-organized University of Chicago Folk Festival, New York University, and Antioch College. Summer parks shows were performed at Oak Leaf Park (including a much-heralded 4th of July all-day bluegrass event hosted by Bill Clifton), Watermelon Park, and an earlier-in-the-season show New River Ranch. Later in the year, they did a 2-day engagement at the Famous Restaurant in Washington, DC.

Attendance at this Stanley Brothers show at New River Ranch seems to have been well-attended. Carter Stanley mentions on stage, "We never worry about the crowd when we come to Rising Sun. We've been coming here for many years, - lots of good neighbors here from down in Virginia, North Carolina and Kentucky, Tennessee, West Virginia and Maryland, Pennsylvania - all over. And it's always a real pleasure to come here to visit with you."

We are indeed fortunate that this document of their performance from four decades ago survives and Baltimore area music enthusiast Leon Kagarise is ours to thank. In the early 1960s, Kagarise was a young high school graduate interested in audio engineering. A recent (March 9, 2000) article from the Washington Post documented his early recording activities: "After graduation he got a job repairing recording equipment and taping church choirs and concerts. He loved it. He also loved country music--the old-fashioned kind with fiddles and mandolins and singing so high-pitched it makes your teeth hurt. In those days--the '50s and early '60s--the Baltimore-Washington area was a hotbed of country music, home to thousands of folks who'd migrated from Appalachia to work in factories and government offices. On weekends they flocked to country music parks--the New River Ranch in Rising Sun, Md., and Sunset Park in southern Pennsylvania, among others. There, sitting on crude plank benches under the trees, they listened to what was then called hillbilly music. Kagarise went, too, lugging his suitcase-size tape recorder. This was before the advent of bootleg records, so nobody cared when he set up his equipment and recorded the shows. The atmosphere was loose--the stars wandered among the picnickers between shows--but the music was intense."

As an amateur photographer, Kagarise also documented the day's proceedings with photos which accompany this disc. In viewing his picture on the front cover, it is obvious that two microphones were present on stage. The top one appears to have been the one for the public address system -- this was still in the days when bands gathered around a single performance microphone. The lower one is evidently the one used by Kagarise to record the concert. In listening closely to the tape, it is evident that some of the spoken passages of emcee work are a little distant sounding, as are some of the solo lead vocals on the verses; seeing how far the singers were from the recording microphone explains how this happened. But the harmony vocals are good and strong, as are the instrumental passages. A small complaint in an otherwise excellent recording. Every attempt has been made to even out the sound from the original masters.

As mentioned earlier, the Stanleys had help on the show from Jack Cooke and Carl Hawkins. Jack had worked previously with the Stanley Brothers, starting in the summer of 1957. He joined the group when the were doing daily radio work on the popular Farm & Fun Time program which aired over WCYB in Bristol, Virginia/Tennessee. He later worked with Bill Monroe and recorded several selections with him for Decca Records. By the early 1960s, he settled in Baltimore and organized a band of his own. But, when ever the Stanleys were in the area and needed a fill-in, Jack was always ready, usually playing bass and singing an occasional solo -- much as he does on this performance. Carl Hawkins (real name Carl Chatsky) was residing in the Baltimore area in the early '60s and was a fan of the Stanley Brothers and their music. Like Jack Cooke, he, too, filled in on several Stanley Brothers shows. Here he plays mandolin but on others he played bass.

This performance was typical of many that the Stanleys gave that summer. The material consisted predominantly of songs and tunes that had been released in the last year or two. It looks like at least two (and possibly three) sets worth of material were recorded, an afternoon show and an evening one (or two). The afternoon show consisted of the foursome of the Stanley Brothers with George Shuffler and Jack Cooke. The proceedings got under way with an zippy banjo instrumental by Ralph called "Steel Guitar Rag." He apparently intended to record the tune earlier for King Records, and even laid down a few scratch versions at a recording session. However, a formal version was never made. "Old Love Letters" comes from the 1960 album "In Person." "Ridin' That Midnight Train" was recorded as a single for Starday in 1959 and eventually appeared on the album simply titled "The Stanley Brothers," SLP-106. Guest musician Jack Cooke soloed on "Molly And Tenbrooks," a tune he obviously learned from his former boss, Bill Monroe. Jack plays rhythm guitar on this one. "If I Lose" and "Jordan" were, again, fairly recent record releases. "If I Lose," which dates from the 1920s via banjoist Charlie Poole, was recorded by the Stanleys for Starday in 1960; it appeared on the album "Mountain Music Sound," SLP-201. "Jordan" was recorded in 1959 for release on the King album "For The Good People," King-698. Ralph gets to spotlight on "I'm On My Way Back To The Old Home," a Bill Monroe tune from the early 1950s, and "Clinch Mountain Backstep," a banjo instrumental he wrote and recorded for King in 1958. Closing out the first set is a tune Carter Stanley announced on the show as being one he wrote and recorded "about a year ago," "God Gave You To Me." Carter and Ralph recorded it for Starday in May of 1960 for release on the "Mountain Music Sound" album.

The next set gets underway with introductions of the various musicians by Carter Stanley. In his comments, he notes that the sun really came out, indicating that all concerned must have had enjoyable weather for the event. Musically, George Shuffler leads off with a solo called "Willy Roy," a song about a crippled youth that was popularized a decade or so earlier by WWVA Jamboree star Doc Williams. The Stanleys feature one of their recent signature songs, "How Mountain Girls Can Love." The song dates from their first album for King Records in 1958. From the Stanleys third King album, "Everybody's Country Favorites," comes "Next Sunday Darling Is My Birthday." It's probably no coincidence that Carter and Ralph performed this tune on this day as it was Carter's 36th birthday! George Shuffler followed up this by leading a round of "Happy Birthday." One of the Stanley Brothers most recent recordings at the time was "The Window Up Above." It was also a recent release for George Jones as well. Ralph related recently that they learned the song directly from George backstage at a concert in Florida where the two were on the same bill. Next, they recreate one of their classic songs from a decade earlier, "The White Dove." The original 78rpm recording, released on Columbia, featured haunting trio harmonies and expressive mandolin work by Pee Wee Lambert. Carl Hawkins helps to recreate the sound of the original recording by supplying mandolin chops throughout the song. Jack Cooke solos on yet another Bill Monroe song, one entitled "Used To Be." Ralph offers a solo of one of this trademark songs, "Man Of Constant Sorrow." Curiously, it sounds as though someone offers some unison vocals at some point during the song; this seems to provide some comic relief to the other band members. Another of the Stanleys most popular hymns was "Rank Strangers," a song recently released on their Starday album called "Sacred Songs From The Hills."

What appears to possibly have been a third set starts off with George Shuffler doing the folk favorite "On Top Of Old Smoky." With the rising popularity of the folk music movement, songs such as this were often-times performed by various sidemen in the band. Carter introduces "A Few More Years" as a tune from their brand new gospel album, "Old Time Camp Meeting." The song was at least a hundred years old by the time the Stanleys got a hold of it; they give it a fairly modern bluegrassy rendering here. Ralph gets a chance to solo on another of his old-time ballads, this time it's "Pretty Polly." Curiously, he uses a verse to close the song that he never used on any of his recordings, about boarding a ship and the ship striking a rock and sinking. Carl Hawkins showcases one of the classic Stanley instrumentals, "Daybreak In Dixie." It was a mandolin tour-de-force that was written by former band member Bill Napier. "How Far To Little Rock" is the Stanleys re-working of the traditional song "Arkansas Traveler." Ironically, they recorded it as a filler to complete a 1959 recording session for King. It was released on a single and went on to become the only charting record that the Stanley Brothers ever had. It reached the Top 20 country charts. Closing out this set, and the show, is a lightning quick version of the old banjo tune "Cumberland Gap."

Thus ended another fine performance by the Stanley Brothers and their Clinch Mountain Boy (George!!) and guests. In all likelihood, Carter and Ralph departed from New River Ranch following their performance and made the nearly 1,000 mile drive to their home base in Live Oak, Florida. It was a grueling routine and is one we should be thankful they endured to make. Although they gave literally thousands of performances in their twenty years together, precious few have survived via tape to be enjoyed by today's enthusiasts. It is fortunate that this performance is one of the one's to be preserved. The treat is ours to enjoy for years to come.

EX Vendo Diario

álbum "Caída Libre"

courtesy of BMG Chile, S.A.

Una mezcla de sonidos primarios y de punk se caracteriza en esta canción de este excelente grupo chileno.

Excellent blend of raw beats and punk-infused sound by this Chilean band.

SÜ Rayo de Luna

álbum "Sü"

courtesy of BMG Music Spain, S.A.

Puro pop electrónico en versión española, lleno de cadencias sensuales.

Dance beats and sensual undertones make Sü a Spanish electronic-pop sensation.

ESPECIALISTAS Vivo, Vivo

álbum "Un Pez en mi Maleta"

courtesy of BMG Music Spain, S.A.

Prueba el sabor hispano de este grupo jovial lleno de ritmos extraordinarios y canciones picarescas.

Taste the Latin flavor in this mix of singular sounds and light-hearted lyrics from Spain.

"Once in a lucky while... you hear music so captivating, so wonderfully arranged that you never heard anything like it before." ...

"the best musical score I have ever heard"

R.H. - Western Massachusetts

"intangible, like the soul of the universe"

A.D. - Palm Beach, Florida

"... you have achieved a sheer romantic sound"

A.G. - American Internet

"...totally enchanting soulful instrumentals"

M.C. - Sao Paulo, Brazil

"...stirring emotions as diverse as the individual listener"

A.P. Palm Beach Gardens, Florida

The instrument sounds and music you are about to hear have been created totally on digital keyboards, composed, arranged, produced, and composed by one man - A.W. Nardi

His audiences in New England, Palm Beach and Brazil have enjoyed his rich orchestral sounds and have asked him to reveal and share his soulfully romantic music... a new musical genre... which he calls "Nouveau". A.W. Nardi has been called the true modern "Renaissance Man", with wide and diversified interests and gifted in many areas.

He lost his hearing at an early age and the love of music that has inspired him has allowed him to deeply inspire others. You are invited to sit back, close your eyes and experience for the first time "Nouveau"

A soft-focus background image showing a person's hands playing a piano. The piano keys are visible, and there are some musical notes floating in the air around the hands. The overall tone is warm and artistic.

*Thank You so much for being one
of the first people to experience*

"Nouveau"

*and for your advocacy.
It is wonderful to feel the
new friendships & community*

Vinnie Knight was born in Harlem, New York. Her smooth, velvety, mysterious, angelic voice has the sophistication of the great Sarah Vaughn, the earthiness of Pearl Bailey, and the seductiveness of Billie Holiday.

Ms. Knight has recorded, performed and collaborated with some of the best musicians of the Jazz World. She has performed in Nairobi, Kenya; starred with "Oliver Jackson and the Harlem Big Band of New York"; and toured Germany, Switzerland, Holland, Istanbul Turkey. She was booked on the SS Norway cruise line, starred with the great trumpeter CLARKE TERRY, and performed in Japan at RAPOS NIGHTCLUB with an all-star Japanese orchestra.

She has garnered rave reviews singing the music of DUKE ELLINGTON and Gladys Shelly. DOIN' THINGS FOR HER, (GPRT Records), an original composition by Gladys Shelley, was arranged by Ms. Knight. Zena Records has produced Collectors Editions of SWEET & HOT (songs from the Duke Ellington song book), LIVE IN JAPAN, and I'VE GOTTA BE ME. Ms. Knight has written, directed and produced musical revues as well as performing at many notable venues in New York City and the Hampton Roads areas. Ms. Knight is winner of an AFRAM Artistic Achiever's award for music - voice, 2003.

THE Delneros
DREAMS
OF DOO WOP

The New Voices of
ACAPPELLA

The Delneros Dreams Of Doo Wop

The Delneros' "Dreams of Doo Wop" project was created out of a friendship formed over the years between myself and Collectables Producer Dennis Pettet. I have had the personal pleasure of recording on the Collectables label for the past six years, starting with Frankie and the Fashions on "Philadelphia" (COL-5731), followed by "The Sound of Acappella, Vol. 1" (COL-6140) and "49th St." (COL-6143). I then recorded "Acappella Serenades" (COL-6152) with the Lafaros.

During the first sessions with Frankie and the Fashions we recorded "Here's That Rainy Day." After we had laid down the five parts, Dennis reminded me that there was a sixth part that was integral to the song. He looked back at me and sang this "...look at my heart" line in a falsetto that just knocked me out! Until then, I had never heard him sing. I said, "Dennis, you must record—you've got a great, unique voice!" The Delneros evolved out of this particular exchange, and now you will all get to hear Dennis' latent talent for yourselves.

The Delneros recorded and released five tracks on "The Sound of Acappella, Vol. 2" (COL-6145). Now it was time to record our own album. "Dreams of Doo Wop" contains eight cover tunes and seven of my own compositions. In addition to my own vocals, several of the songs showcase Dennis' leads. I was delighted to have Dennis sing some of my original songs.

The eight covers that we do for you on this album represent our own interpretations of those original recordings, and each one bears our own unique thumb print. It is our way of feeling or interpreting a lyric or musical phrase without sacrificing the basic integrity of the piece. We sincerely hope that our efforts will meet with your approval, and that all of the songs in this package will bring you many happy moments.

When we were singing on the corners and in the hallways in days gone by, the harmony would fuel our young dreams. This album represents those dreams, "The Dreams of Doo Wop."

—Thanks for listening!
Frank Lafaro

Dennis Pettet extends a very special Thank You to Jerry Greene. Thanks also to Andre Pettet and Jack Hogencamp for their help on this project.

SANDBOXERS: Arnel - Vocals, Gtar Lee Evans - Bass, backing vocals Will Reyes - Gtar, backing vocals Mathew O'Leary - Drums

1. HANDS OF DESIRE ◇ Playing with the Hands Of Desire Scoping out the women on the side Rumping in the sand is what we admire Trying everything that we can find Wanna make a move come alive Every single time a mind sensation Can't you see the tell tale sign All it takes is pure attraction I got the need To release this pressure And plant my seed Into your...

2. LOVE IN A DISTANCE † ◇ Here I am looking at your pictures I sigh then just drift away Filled with emotional confusions Always have been Feeling this way Since the first time I've seen you Although I know It's not the real Wish that I could meet you Then you'll know just how I feel You are the one i'm lookin for Love makes me lose control I need you more and more each day Love in a distance There you are I can see your face Just a glimpse The color of your hair Thoughts of you I just can't erase Tried so hard Oh not to stare Now you seem so much closer Touch my hand as I sing your song Come and hold me so tender I'll be waiting for so long

3. THINK ABOUT IT ‡ Sometimes it's easy Usually hard Everything is crazy And i'm slowly falling apart Trying to forget It's hard letting go Afraid that i'll regret Cause I have nothin to show Who am I kidding Am I fooling myself When I think about it I'm like everybody else Everybody's saying Hey you're wasting your time When I think about it I'm just trying to live my life Sometimes loneliness Can ease the pain If it doesn't get you first or it'll drive you insane Searching for answers Whether I should linger All I can think of It's living that matters

4. PAISLEY CHILDREN † Take a look out the window Tell me what you see See the paisley children Playing in the dark they seem to have everything The party's over and I want to go home The party's over and I feel so alone As they opened the window and went out to join the fun Bill just stayed in his room playing with a gun Saying wake me up in the morning Wake me up when the damage is done Wake me up when it's over Think i'll pass on the fun (chorus) When he was a young boy They promised him the stars But they could never quite bag the goods Now that he's older He knows the meaning of Hell Now that he's older He can do nothing but dwell

5. ONLY INSIDE YOUR HEART ◇ Have you seen what's out of reach Straight in front of you It's in your mind It's in your soul Though it's never true You look all around cuz you're down on the ground Your life is in illusion It's a way to move on whether right or wrong Will you ever fins a solution If I had the chance to keep it inside You know I'd never change But every day I'm tapped on the back and have to rearrange Deep inside What is like a feeling It never lies Always worth believing If only there was a way to hold tight Get out of what is real I'll get off this ride Take my flight Runaway and take my deal Cuz one day I'm up and one day I'm down I have to surrender my heart You see it looks good You see it looks bad and now it's back to the start (chorus) Only, only inside your heart Only, only a`world apart.

Recorded, Engineered & Mastered by Rick Geymont at Big Foot Studios in Fremont, CA. Mixed by Rick Geymont & Sandboxers. All songs written and performed by SANDBOXERS (BMI) except where noted. The background is a complex marbled pattern with swirling, wavy lines in shades of purple, pink, and grey. In the center, there is a prominent, glowing yellow-green oval shape that resembles a sun or a planet. The overall texture is fluid and organic.

COWBOY DENNIS

*This don't make no solution
You Benedict revolution
I don't take anything seriously
You picked your friends - so use them
Don't ever listen to them
They won't take anything seriously
You got to run where the running is good
You got to wear the right shoes just to be understood
You got to feel when the feeling is gone
To be a man one needs another one
Don't get me wrong - I like the women folk
But they do take the humor from a joke
Hey - don't take what I say so seriously*

(see ya 'round)

Maybe we can catch a game?

(see ya 'round)

Or put another log on the flame?

(see ya 'round)

Don't stare at me - I ain't ashamed

I'm Cowboy Dennis!

(ride 'am cowboy...)

You Are The Music

Rene Goodwin

Special thanks to:

Sharon Ingram for sharing your husband for such long periods and to Kyle and Bianca Ingram for letting their Dad do what he does best.

If you are reading this message, then you are a witness to a dream, my dream, come true, and sharing a moment with me on my spiritual path – my journey in search of me. It has not been an easy journey, but rather one filled with unanticipated experiences which caused emotions ranging from bliss to despair. Many times I have felt as though I had taken three steps forward only to wind up five steps back to square one. What has remained constant throughout the process however, is the form of friends, strangers, chance meetings and other unexplainable happenings. In other words, there are no accidents – there is only the decision to choose to open your heart, to follow your path, and to heal. I share with you my efforts to express myself in the hope that there will be something here that touches you and reminds you that you are not alone. Thank you for letting me into your life – for even just this moment.

Rockin' Chair Oldies

The musical team of BIG TINY LITTLE and JULIE JULES let you relive those "Good Ol' Days."

BIG TINY LITTLE heads the list of best purveyors of Honky Tonk Piano. He not only covers Honky Tonk Piano, but he's a deft handler of Dixieland, Ragtime, Jazz, Country and Blues. He's positively infectious onstage.

Instantly recognizable from his years on the Lawrence Welk show, Tiny continues to amaze with his versatile keyboard performances.

A special ingredient has now been added to Tiny's great talents – stunning singer JULIE JULES. Born to a musical family in New Orleans, Julie as a child sang in many Broadway style revues in the area and later earned her Master's Degree in Music Theory and Composition from Loyala University at New Orleans. Little says that Jules "is the best singer I've heard in a long time – she can do it all: Dixieland, Jazz, Blues and Country."

You will enjoy this recording of "Rockin' Chair Oldies." The Honky Tonk Piano and the great vocal renditions make for a great trip down your musical memory lane.

These two accomplished Irish performers bring out the best in each other and present their live show with vitality and a touch of humor, although they often perform with other backing musicians at live shows, this album is all their own work and displays their fine vocal and multi-instrumental talent; on this album they share with us their creative arrangements in intricate rhythms and melodies woven from their beautiful celtic music.

THE BOY FROM TUPELO

SHAUN NIELSEN

"Shaun was Elvis' favorite singer. Elvis brought such happiness to so many of us with his music. Shaun brought such happiness to Elvis with his music. I have spent many, many hours sitting with Elvis at Graceland, on the road, and in recording studios listening to Shaun sing for him. I believe this to be some of his happiest times. Elvis' spirit surely must have been hovering over Shaun while recording this album, done in total love. He sings so good! It is so touching, it brought such treasured memories to my mind.... this great collection of Elvis' favorite songs by Elvis' favorite singer."

Tom
Sweeney

The Bard Of Ireland

Tom Sweeney is the quintessential Irish entertainer! For nearly twenty years, Tom has travelled the byways of Ireland, the U.S., and Canada, bringing his joyful blend of Irish and Celtic music to audiences from nine to ninety! Steeped in the folklore and history of Irish music, Tom brings a wealth of tradition and humor to every performance.

One review describes Tom this way... "His heart shines still...just tucked up his sleeve a way. In beautiful ballads, and by the sheer act of perpetual song, his voice has risen from baritone to a bright natural tenor any classical artist must envy."

Tom toured the U.S. extensively as the front man and lead signer for the Irish trio "Barley Bree". He has appeared with the group at every major festival throughout North America, including headlining at the famed Milwaukee Irish Fest no less than nine times.

Television has always been a successful medium for Tom. He has appeared on CBS, PBS, and TNN numerous times. He hosted the thirty-six part "Barley Bree Show" on Canadian CTV. Most recently he has appeared on "CBS This Morning" with Harry Smith and Paula Zahn, "The Kelly Show" in Ireland, and "Music City Tonight" with Crooke and Chase on TNN. He has also performed on the BBC and ITV in Ireland, hosted his own radio show on Irish Independent Radio, and appeared in the Canadian television drama series "Windows".

Tom has six albums to date, and has just finished his music video "The Fair Hills Of Ireland" which contains his hit song "Anthem for the Children" and other original works.

Tom Sweeney is the ultimate Irish one man show and truly "The Bard of Ireland."

Tom

1. Little Isle Of Green

(T. Sweeney). There is something about a long summer's day in Ireland that inspires peace and contentment. Some of my own thoughts make up the song.

2. Sea People

(A. Mac Gillivray). A lovely song about the folk who make their living on the sea. From the Pen of my good friend Allistair Mac Gillivray of Cape Breton, Canada.

3. Homes of Donegal

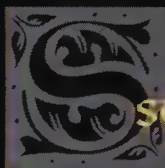

(Trad. P.D.). This was a great favorite at every gathering when I was growing up in Ireland. Donegal possesses the most rugged land and gentle hearts in the country.

4. Do You Think I Do Not Know

(H. Lawson). I've always loved the words of this most tender of love songs. Written by the nineteenth century Australian poet Henry Lawson and learned from the singing of Priscilla Herdman.

5. Between Me And You

(Mc Gee). For many years Walton's Music Galleries in Dublin sponsored a Saturday afternoon program on Irish radio. It became an institution and met it's end only recently. Saturdays aren't the same somehow. This little piece of nonsense was performed regularly by one of the Walton's stalwarts, the great Charlie Mc Gee.

Sweeney

6. Daisy A Day

(J. Strunk). If you listened to a lot of pop music you'd imagine that love was the sole possession of the young. The late, great Jud Strunk knew better and wrote this wonderful song.

7. Tyrone 'Mongst The Bushes

(T. Sweeney). You think of home at the oddest times and places and I wrote this song while looking out over the Atlantic in Marblehead, Massachusetts. For the ones at home.

8. Tie Me Down

(A. Mac Gillivray). I suppose love manifests itself in many ways and sometimes the kindest act of love is tying someone down who might otherwise go off the rails. Love is kind.

9. The Dark Island

(Trad.). Everyone has their own dark island to which they may retreat to find peace and solitude. This song is Scottish and I learned this version from my old friend John Kerr from Kerryheel in Donegal.

10. Killyburn Brae

(Trad.). The battle of the sexes has been going on for a long time and I'm not sure that it's over yet! Even the devil couldn't handle the woman in this song. An old traditional favorite in Ireland that I learned at school from the Christian Brothers. Education, what?

TUFTS UNIVERSITY

BEEZEBUBS

CLASSICS

VOLUME ONE

Nowhere else in my life's experience does there exist the cross-generational camaraderie and strong feelings of brotherhood that we share as part of the Beelzebub phenomenon. Each song in this collection will recall an era, perhaps a musical style, masterful humor, colorful experiences, and hard work - and, in turn, faces, personalities, dreams, and love. As I sing your songs and as you sing mine, it becomes clear that there are not simply thirty different years of Beelzebub groups; rather, there is one continuous, glowing harmony of friendship. Brothers in song, sing on! - Tim Vaill

This recording was made possible through the generous donations of:

Gene Blake
Chris Parker
Josh Tane

Don DeLollis
Dave Pratt
Tim Vaill

Mike Miller
Eric Siegal
Chet Webster

Special Thanks to Jim Barrett, Gene Blake, Marty Fernandi, Danny Lichtenfeld, Marty Mahoney, Mark Manassee, Dave Pratt, Bill Stone, Josh Tane, Tim Vaill, Chet Webster, and the 30th Reunion Committee.

In the Arms of Men

Smoke and smoke and smoke around we talk like this is hallowed ground but I don't see no priest here. And jokes and jokes and jokes around but old sad eyes he don't hear a sound, says I look like his daughter. Black and blue and bloody-kneed I said I hope that she don't look like me, but you're a sweetheart.

He said honey I have learned that daughters are a curse, that God gives to bad bad men, who ain't been good to their women.

I tanned I tanned, I tanned her hide and tried to keep her locked inside, but she still got out. And in the arms, the arms of men, I know she lies her fragile head, but they won't protect her.

(instrumental)

So rounds and rounds and rounds of rounds I asked him if he was home-bound, and if I could follow. He said oh you silly silly thing you make me feel just like a king, but you must have a father.

(Repeat Chorus)

So in his car, his car we prayed there was some kind of saving grace, there to listen. He drove he drove he drove me home but left me there all alone, kissed my forehead.

And said honey I have learned that daughters are a gift, that God gives... To dumb old men, to teach how to take care of women.

THE TRITONE SESSIONS

THE TRITONE SESSIONS

This CD is dedicated to the Memory of Rick D, and to Dave Rogers and his family, as well as to all the friends, patrons, promoters and performers... all the crabby co-workers, miscreants, and misanthropes that have come and gone in and out through these doors over the years, sat on these chairs, drank "a special" and then bitched with each other and us, sometimes about work, or your lives, or the world in general. It's also dedicated to those who were here to witness the sometimes amazingly awesome and the sometimes amazingly awful shows that gleefully celebrated all levels of Musical ability, genres, sexual identity and genders. Let's raise a toast to those bizarre off-nights and the wonderfully surreal dementia of trying to figure out WHAT would possibly possess someone to do something like that on a stage.... in front of people... (or probably at times, just the staff.) It's Closing time! See you in some other way, on some other day! - Scott

Ray would like to thank:

First of all God for the talent, the music, the words, my health and the second chance.

My family, friends and fans for keeping the faith.

For all the club owners and agents for keeping the bills paid and food on the table.

Terry Tiller for his patience and ears.

Don Tiller for his believing in me for all these years.

Special thanks to Glen Tart, what a friend you've been!

Last, but not least, my road band for their time and effort on the music and for standing behind me on that stage night after night through the good times and bad and everything in between. Thanks guys, I love ya!

Chuck Vincent & Shuffle King of California

After playing football for the University of Miami, Chuck Vincent embarked on his musical journey, soon having one of the hottest nightclub acts in south Florida, during the early to mid-sixties. In 1968, Chuck moved to San Francisco and became bass player and vocalist with the legendary rock band 'Osceola'. The band was nicknamed "The Mad Bombers" by Avalon and Family Dog promoter Chet Helms. Chuck was also co-owner of the popular Bear West Studios.

In 1980, Shuffle was born, and since then two albums have been released on Smoke House Records. In his bass playing career, Chuck Vincent has played with numerous and well known types of groups and musicians, among which were Big Mama Thorton, Chuck Berry, Clara Ward and the Gospel Singers, Doug Kershaw, Chris Hayes, Nicky Hopkins, Taj Mahal, Pee-Wee Ellis, Mark Isham, Johnny Guitar Watson, and Waylon Jennings.

Chucks continues to write in many styles. This particular collection has been described as "California Boogie."

"Thank you" only hints at describing my gratefulness and appreciation for the following people, teachers and guides in my life:

I am extremely fortunate to have had the opportunity to work with the immeasurably skilled Roberta Donnay and David Freiberg on this project. I am bowing deeply in gratitude for your large hearts, integrity and sense of humor!

Major kudos to the crew of talented musicians who shared their talents: Matt Baxter, Doug Harman, Gigi Gonaway and Stuart Hamm are masters! And thanks to the angelic Linda Imperial for lending your voice and space.

Thank you Sri. K. Pattabhi Jois for your life's work and teachings.

Thank you Cate Fields, Allegra Gibson, Margarite Harris, Karen Hildebrand, Susan Ives, Anna Kuperberg, Leigh Marecek, Michelle Mousavi, No Limits for Women in the Arts, Bobbie Rucker, jim saliba, Alice Cornelia Schoenfeld, Matthew Stafford, Sally Stoik, Emily Stucky, John Weissenreider, Peter Whitehead and Gail Williams for support, friendship and shelter in its various guises.

Thank you John Berlinsky, Lea Watkins and the Mill Valley YOGASTUDIO community for innumerable lessons but especially holding the ground for me when I didn't know it existed.

Thank God for everything.

This is dedicated to my family. I love you all.

May peace prevail.

Former lead singer of the world famous Platters

Virgil Gibson

Sings the Oldies

VOLUME TWO

Virgil Gibson

This journey started with a prayer...

Just before Virgil's birth, his mother heard Lena Horn sing "Stormy Weather" on the radio and prayed that her child would be given a 'golden voice'. Virgil believes that prayer was answered.

As a teenager, Virgil greatly admired the world famous Platters and prayed that one day he would be able to sing with them. Virgil believes God "just fixed it" and Virgil became one of the youngest lead singers of the Platters. During the 1960's and 1970's, Virgil performed with the Platters throughout Europe, Asia and Latin America. Virgil also appeared with legendary groups such as the O'Jays, the Drifters and the Coasters and individuals including Bobby Day, Dee Clark and Al Wilson. Virgil was also lead singer for fifteen years with the super-charged Rivingtons.

Virgil's five octave voice is considered rare in the music industry. Decades later, he is a national treasure. His fans feel "no one can bend it like Virgil!" And it is that special sound we remember from our youth that has been captured on this album. These nostalgic favorites bring back personal memories that have been neatly tucked away for decades.

Before each performance and before recording each song on this album, Virgil prays that he is able to touch every heart. He really hopes that prayer is answered.

*When I was a kid, I would lay awake in bed with a radio
and listen to all the great music others had made.
Every now and then, a song would make me wish that someday I could make my own contribution.*

It took me years to realize this dream.

A close-up, artistic photograph of the interior of a piano, showing the dense arrangement of strings and the hammers. The lighting is warm, with golden and reddish tones, creating a sense of depth and texture. The strings are taut and run diagonally across the frame, while the hammers are visible in the background, slightly out of focus.

MUSIC PRODUCTION

Emmy Winner
original music source for television, films and radio

The question I am consistently asked about my job is, "How did you choose a career creating music for film?" The best answer I can give is, I didn't choose it, it chose me.

For as long as I can remember, I have listened more than I have looked. I imagine in some ways, we composers are cursed, because a sound or melody will haunt us until we find a way to release it. These emotional expressions arrive in the form of music. We give them names and numbers, but if they are created with passion, they take on a life of their own. These expressions have become my job.

The collection of samples you hold ranges from full symphonic work to television themes. For more than 20 years, I have been working from New York to London striving to create the most compelling music for picture. My consistent goal is not just to meet my clients' expectations, but to raise that bar and deliver beyond.

I hope that in listening to my music, you hear the passion I would like to put to work for you.

Thanks and Enjoy,

HOWLERS

the
vs. the BLUES POLICE

When the Howlers approached the owner of a blues label with a proposal for this album, he answered, "Okay, but you gotta play pure blues, 'cause the blues police will be listening." He was thinking of the blues-purists who judge blues artists by how close they sound to the blues giants of the past—the Three Kings, for instance: Albert, Freddie and B.B.

But the Howlers play the blues their own way, influenced as much by quirky R&B-man Earl King as by the Big Three. The Howlers are all blues veterans—drummer Ricky Carroll toured with Big Mamma Thornton, for instance. But each brings many influences to the blues. For instance, on a few tracks you will hear Dean Forshee's amazing country-based pedal steel guitar work. The Howlers dedicate this album to him. Dean went down with the Alaska Airlines flight in January of 2000 as the Howlers were making this record.

The blues police keep blues on a very short leash. They fear the blues will die if they ever let go, but it won't. It'll continue to grow. The Howlers hear blues in reggae and bop, often in soul and sometimes in rock—and they bring all their influences to this record. They hope that you like everything they play, and if you do, it must be the blues.

The Howlers are:

Bill Mentz	Vocals
Roger Bergen	Guitar
Walter Pope	Keyboards
Rick Carroll	Drums
Emmett "Ike" Eiland	Bass and vocals

The Howlers miss Dean Forshee.

Steve Farrell - Drums

Michael Panella - Organ - Clavenette

Todd Lanka - Bass

Michael O'Brien - Vocals - Percussion

This album was recorded live in 15 hours isolated, tracked live in a handful of takes to 2" tape. A special thanks to Brian Hewitt Photography, Jeremy Burns, Lake House Studios Tim Pannella, Erik Romero, Jon Leidersdorff. And any other friends who helped make this album happen in anyway. We have to start building the house around the window now. Thanks!

More Songs for People Like You & Me

1.Intro 2. Person Centered Plan (to the tune of Winter Wonderland, words by P. Leidy) 3. Cover of Mouth Magazine (the Shel Silverstein song w/new words by P. Leidy)

If you haven't seen Mouth, it's time you did. I'm not just saying that because they sell my CDs in their "Attitude Catalog", though that is a fine reason to check it out. Mouth is a much needed voice and is always struggling to make ends meet—because they don't take ads and they tell the truth. It'll provoke ya.

Subscribe! mouthmag.com. 4. Don't Wanna Go to Branson

(P. Leidy) 5. Inclusion (P. Leidy) These are some of the people who have taught me about inclusion (too many to list them all here): Kathryn Mazack, Dennis Granzen, Jack Pearpoint and the late great Marsha Forest (inclusion.com), Gary Messinger, John & Connie Lyle O'Brien, Mary Clare Carlson.

6. Corporate America Calling (P. Leidy) 7. People Can't Wait (P. Leidy) 8. I've Got that Borderline Feelin'

(in the Pit of My Stomach) (P. Leidy) 9. Jerry Lewis Blues (P. Leidy, based on a blues arrangement by Doc Watson) 10. Everybody Has a Gift

(P. Leidy) Thanks to Christine Mayer, who said, "If you're going to work with me, you have to listen to me. And you can't just listen with your ears, because it will go to your head too fast. You have to listen with your whole body. If you listen with your whole self, some of what I say will enter your heart." Thanks also to Tom Kohler, James, Wanda, Phil, Carter, Darwin, Pat, Terry, Sue, Cassie, PC and Dorothy, and a bunch of others, including those mentioned above at #5. 11. You Must Be a Saint (P. Leidy) 12. Whiners

(words by P. Leidy) Dedicated to Scott McCallum. 13.The Bowel Song

(P. Leidy) Bill Schwab, MD, also known as "The greatest doctor and human being in the whole wide world", has not only been a wonderful friend to Options, but has also taught us a lot about bowels and other body parts over the years. This song is inspired by a training he did, during which he shared this universal truth: "Bowels are everything."

A black and white photograph of a man in a classical setting. The man is shirtless, muscular, and has a serious expression, looking down and to his left. He is draped in a heavy, patterned cloth that features large, ornate floral or medallion designs. The cloth is draped over his shoulders and down his body, with one end pooling on the floor. The background is a detailed, classical-style painting or tapestry depicting a landscape with a body of water, a distant building, and a large, ornate structure on the left. The overall composition is dramatic and evokes a sense of ancient or mythological grandeur.

PRINCESS BEAN'S MESSY WORLD

A ROCK'N ROLL
FAIRYTALE

Once upon a time, a girl named Rachel discovered she had a princess inside herself - because, after all, every girl has one. She named her princess, "Princess Bean," and wrote a book for her to live in. But, by mistake, Rachel left the book with Princess Bean in it at the library, where it was put on a shelf with all the other books about princesses.

Princess Bean loves her own story and the dragon and prince who live in it with her; yet more than anything, she loves adventure. One day, just for adventure, Princess Bean decides to get her "Official Princess" license; and in order to get it, she needs to find her cayodle, which is a yodle and song mixed together and every real princess has one. Since there are no cayodles or other princesses in Princess Bean's own book, she asks her dragon and prince to boost her up to the top of the page so she can look into the book of fairy tales next door. [Messy World] Higher and higher they push her until - oops! Princess Bean falls out of her own book and into the story of Cinderella, who mistakes Bean for her fairy godmother. [Bean's Bag] Princess Bean leaves Cinderella to find the mirror in Snow White's story so she can ask his permission to be in the Prettiest Primping Princess Pageant [The Mirror]. Then she hikes into Sleeping Beauty's tale, where she falls for Sleeping Beauty's prince. [Dance on the Bed]

At the Pageant, Princess Bean lets Cinderella tie rocks in her hair and Snow White glue cans on her feet. [Will I Win] Bean causes such an uproar that she is banned from the book of fairytales and tries to go home to her own story, but someone has moved the book of fairytales to a different shelf. [Run, Jump, Play / All Alone]

Scared and hurt, yet willing to do whatever will help her get back to her own book, Princess Bean returns to the pageant and not only finds her cayodle but uses it to save Fairyland from being lost in the kiddie section of the library forever. [Rock the Book] Everyone thanks Princess Bean for saving them and showing what a "real" princess is all about. [Thank You]

A princess unlike any you've ever known -
A recording unlike any you've ever experienced!

Meet Princess Bean - a fun-loving, adventurous, self-proclaimed princess who lives in her own storybook on a library shelf but can jump into any book - and does, bringing magic and mayhem wherever she goes.

When Princess Bean jumps into a book of fairy tales in search of the one thing she needs to get her "Official Princess" license, no one she meets in Fairyland believes she is a real princess. Would a real princess wear pink hair and high tops or dance on Sleeping Beauty's bed or dress Cinderella in cool kicks and hot threads to go to the ball?

No one believes Princess Bean is for real—that is, until she finds her "Real Princess" power and saves Fairyland from a terrible fate.

Princess Bean's Messy World is an exciting story with an empowering message, great rock-n-roll music, and side-splitting lyrics that make it as entertaining and meaningful for grownups as for children.

"It's a great story in a great production with an even greater message."

Lift Him Up

Rev. Lisa Clayton and Judah

To the God of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob, T.A., Viola, Charity and Lisa. Thank you for calling me out of darkness into your marvelous light. Thank you God for Jesus Christ my Savior and Lord and precious gift of the Holy Spirit. To my parents, Mrs. Viola Clayton and the late Presiding Elder Rev. Thomas Alva Clayton, Sr. Mommy, thank you for believing in me. Daddy, thank you for being a trail-blazer. To Al, Wayne, Doris Ann and the rest of the Clayton, Williams-Lindsey Clan, I love you all very much. To my big sister, Chanita, you asked mama and daddy for me and... here I am. Thank you for being a fantastic steward over that for which you asked. Shameze, I love you. To my pastor, Rev. James B. Walker & the Phillips Metropolitan Church Family, thank you for the love, support and the push. Thanks Bishop Charles and Lady Willie Helton for your support. To Judah (the Group, Judafapraise, Judah Ensemble, Jude Praise & Worship) words cannot express how grateful I am to God for all of you. Thank you for loving God and for working so hard. Don't forget Psalms 76:1 and Jude 1:24-25 To Elder Maggie Joyner, thank you for being there. God has used you to teach me so much. Thank You. To Kelly Littlejohn (Simon, Scottie), III this music would be nothing without the anointing and your awesome keyboarding skills. Vincent, our God sent percussionist, Thanks (you know what I'm saying) Rodney, Thanks for the terrific guitar, Mike Walton, thanks for the awesome bass and lead guitar. Mrs. Morehead, you keep lookin' out for me and all of Judah. Thanks Mechelle Dudley, Daphne & Malesha Dowdell. Thanks Pastor Vanesse Burns & the Faith Church Family. Special thanks to the University of Connecticut Voices of Freedom, Paine College, Pastor Chris Johnson, Pastor William Falls. Thanks to Rev. Lori Thomas, Minister Helena Hill, Minister Marlow Smith, Pastor Merchal Monts, Christine Crockett, Pastor Larry & Lady Barbara Hudson, Pastor Larry & Co. - Pastor Sandra Carnes and to all the other pastors and ministers who have supported this ministry.

This musical project couldn't have been possible without the talent and the incredible, beautiful energy of each participant. If the energy produced by them were converted to light, this compact disc could illuminate your life for a long, long time, I can assure you.

Thanks to my family for my upbringing of which I'm very proud of, especially to my mother for being there for me. Te quiero mucho, mucho, mucho.

Special thanks to my best friend Shirley for all she has put into my existence, I love you.

A musical thank you to my friend Juan Pedro Gaffney R., director of Coro Hispano de San Francisco, for the beautiful arrangement of "En la Primera Mañana de Enero."

I dedicate this recording, also, to every person that has given me a smile, hug, kiss and much more.

To all my wonderful friends- I love you all!!! "Xs" & lovers, thanks for the moments.

And a special toast to my new beginning.

"We'll Arise"

words and music by Kathy Ulloa
and the Bethel School Chorus of 2000
arranged by Milton Smith

Verse 1

Mother Nature is powerful to see
She often moves unexpectedly
In a moment least expected the rivers began to rise
The floods rushed in, covered the land, much to our surprise (but)

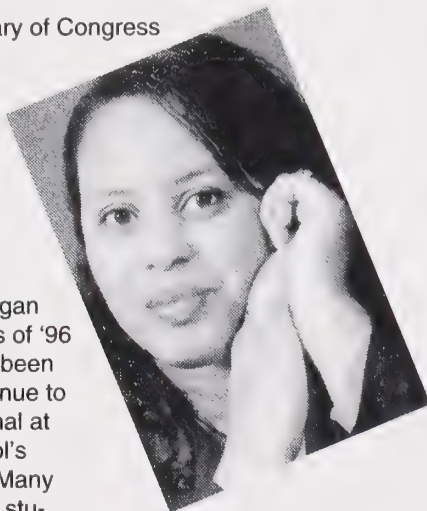

Chorus

We'll arise, we'll restore
We will rebuild again.
Much was lost at such great cost
Together we will stand.
Helping one another cleaning up our coast
Sharing everything we have with people who need it the most.

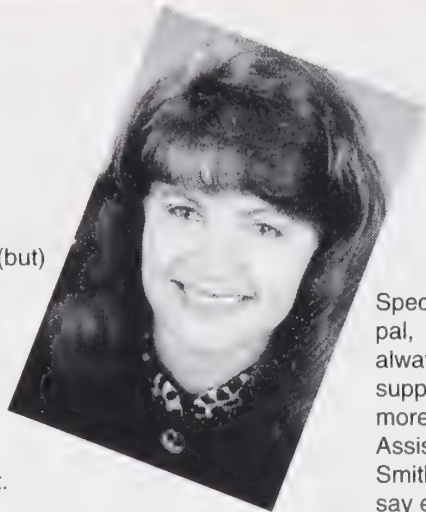

Verse 2

We must continue to clean up our land.
Let's work together helping hand in hand.
Our landfills are getting fuller each and every day.
We must recycle and continue to find a way (for)
Chorus

© 2000 Library of Congress

This song began
with the class of '96
'97 and has been
and will continue to
be inspirational at
Bethel School's
assemblies. Many
thanks to the students, parents, and
especially to God
for making this dream reality.

Special thanks to our principal, Roscoe Locke, for
always believing in us and for supporting "The Arts" with more than just words. To our
Assistant Principal Jackie
Smithwick, -- what can we
say except --
"You are awesome!"

"We Have The Victory"

words and music by Denise Carmack
arranged by Milton Smith

Verse 1

Our hearts are extended to the place we love the best
Where our lives are being molded to a height above the rest
Where friendships are forever, where there's love and happiness
We are the children of tomorrow and our futures have been blessed

Chorus

For we can climb the highest mountain
We can cross the widest sea
We can go through the deepest valley
With Bethel we have the victory

Verse 2

When you come into our building, when you walk on down our halls
Our doors are hung on hinges that welcome one and all
You'll feel the love that we are given and the pride
throughout the years
Although we'll be happy when we leave here, we'll smile between
our tears

This album is dedicated to the many people that have made this dream a reality. I would especially like to thank my family and friends for their love and support. Thanks to all the musicians for making this music sound so good! A very special thanks goes to Phil Polsinelli and Rich Kurtz for their countless hours of hard work, creativity and dedication. Thank you Glenn Barratt for your exceptional work. Finally, to all of you that have attended my concerts, turned your friends on to the music and have given me the encouragement to create and perform my music for you. I thank you for making "DreamWorld" come true.

Dara VanRemoortel

ECHO IN MY PLAYROOM

At wake-up time, dinner time, play time, even in the grocery store, Dara VanRemoortel makes it fun, and encourages children to ask questions like "What's so gross about groceries?" and reflect on the simple things such as the "echo in my playroom" and "sunsets, warm breezes, and pretty butterfly wings".

Echo in My Playroom is a collection of 12 original songs written over the past 10 years. Dara's inspirations include her children Anna and Craig, her husband Chris, and the world (and words) around us!

Join Dara in the "playroom" and find much more to play with than blocks, puzzles, dolls and trains! Come on inside and play!

PERFORMANCE TRACK

MAN AFTER YOUR OWN HEART

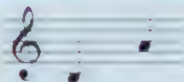

Key: Bb

Key: G

LO

Key: E

Your purchase of this Hi-Lo Plus Performance Track gives you more versatility than ever before in choosing your accompaniment. You can now sing great songs in the range that best suits your voice — whether HI, MEDIUM or LOW — either with or without background vocals. This series offers traditional as well as contemporary titles with the highest quality arrangements.

Hi-Lo Plus keys have been selected to give you the maximum usable ranges. Experiment with them. In most circumstances the keys are only a third apart (four half-steps). If the Hi key is just a little too high for your vocal range, try the medium key, etc.

While these tracks are recorded on high-quality Chrome tape (CrO₂), you will find the “normal” bias setting to be the best for performance. If you hear too much tape hiss, you may want to try setting your machine on Dolby (Dolby B if available). In very rare cases, you may experience a “phasing” problem (caused by the head alignment being off on a cassette deck — much like a car out of alignment), you can delete this problem by using only one of the channels — left or right — for your performance. Simply disconnect one of the RCA plugs from the “play” (or “out”) on your cassette deck.

WARNING! This recording is the sole property of Benson Music Group, Inc., and may be used only for live performance. Unlawful reproduction of this recording will result in prosecution. Recording with this product is not covered by the CCLI license. Written permission is required to record with this performance track. To obtain permission to record with these tracks, write: Hi-Lo Leasing Office, Benson Music Group, Inc., 365 Great Circle Rd., Nashville, TN 37228.

MAN AFTER YOUR OWN HEART

Words and Music by Wayne Kirkpatrick and
Billy Luz Sprague

O God, Father in heaven and earth
I call to You like deep calls to deep over water
Show me Your endless measure of grace
Let tender mercies
Shine once again from Your holy face

Deep in my soul there's a craving
To please the One who has saved me

O God, though I have fallen so far
You know that I'm still a man after Your own heart

I am driven by rivers of pride
You are my rescue, the Maker and Keeper of my life
Lead me by the still waters again
Use me in spite of the prodigal child that You know I am

Just as a deer runs to water
So does my soul to You, Father

O God, though I have wandered so far
You know that I'm still a man after Your own heart

Just as a deer runs to water
So does my soul to You, Father

O God, though I have wandered so far
You know that I'm still a man after Your own heart

I'm still a man after Your own heart

1961 seems to have been a year of economy for the Stanley Brothers. For most of the year, the core of their group was a three-piece unit which consisted of Carter and Ralph Stanley plus their legendary sideman George Shuffler. For a number of park appearances that were made that summer, this was the line-up for the Stanley Brothers and the Clinch Mountain Boys. It was this trio which showed up at New River Ranch in Rising Sun, Maryland on August 27, 1961. They were augmented on the show by Jack Cooke, then a main-stay in the Baltimore, Maryland area. Local musician Carl Hawkins played mandolin on a few songs from their evening performance at New River.

Country music in general, and bluegrass in particular, was still reeling from the impact of rock and roll. The Stanleys weathered the storm by working in Florida under the auspices of the Jim Walter Corporation, builders of pre-fabricated homes in the south. But, attendance at show dates was way down and the Stanleys, and many other bands, scaled down to meet to the economic challenges. Even though times were slim, they seemed to be staying busy. They recorded three albums for King Records that year ("Old Time Camp Meeting," "Sing The Songs They Like Best," and "Folk Song Festival"). Concerts included the recently-organized University of Chicago Folk Festival, New York University, and Antioch College. Summer parks shows were performed at Oak Leaf Park (including a much-heralded 4th of July all-day bluegrass event hosted by Bill Clifton), Watermelon Park, and an earlier-in-the-season show New River Ranch. Later in the year, they did a 2-day engagement at the Famous Restaurant in Washington, DC.

Attendance at this Stanley Brothers show at New River Ranch seems to have been well-attended. Carter Stanley mentions on stage, "We never worry about the crowd when we come to Rising Sun. We've been coming here for many years - lots of good neighbors here from down in Virginia, North Carolina and Kentucky, Tennessee, West Virginia and Maryland, Pennsylvania - all over. And it's always a real pleasure to come here to visit with you."

We are indeed fortunate that this document of their performance from four decades ago survives and Baltimore area music enthusiast Leon Kagarise is ours to thank. In the early 1960s, Kagarise was a young high school graduate interested in audio engineering. A recent (March 9, 2000) article from the Washington Post documented his early recording activities: "After graduation he got a job repairing recording equipment and taping church choirs and concerts. He loved it. He also loved country music--the old-fashioned kind with fiddles and mandolins and singing so high-pitched it makes your teeth hurt. In those days--the '50s and early '60s--the Baltimore-Washington area was a hotbed of country music, home to thousands of folks who'd migrated from Appalachia to work in factories and government offices. On weekends they flocked to country music parks--the New River Ranch in Rising Sun, Md., and Sunset Park in southern Pennsylvania, among others. There, sitting on crude plank benches under the trees, they listened to what was then called hillbilly music. Kagarise went, too, lugging his suitcase-size tape recorder. This was before the advent of bootleg records, so nobody cared when he set up his equipment and recorded the shows. The atmosphere was loose--the stars wandered among the picnickers between shows--but the music was intense."

As an amateur photographer, Kagarise also documented the day's proceedings with photos which accompany this disc. In viewing his picture on the front cover, it is obvious that two microphones were present on stage. The top one appears to have been the one for the public address system -- this was still in the days when bands gathered around a single performance microphone. The lower one is evidently the one used by Kagarise to record the concert. In listening closely to the tape, it is evident that some of the spoken passages of emcee work are a little distant sounding, as are some of the solo lead vocals on the verses; seeing how far the singers were from the recording microphone explains how this happened. But the harmony vocals are good and strong, as are the instrumental passages. A small complaint in an otherwise excellent recording. Every attempt has been made to even out the sound from the original masters.

As mentioned earlier, the Stanleys had help on the show from Jack Cooke and Carl Hawkins. Jack had worked previously with the Stanley Brothers, starting in the summer of 1957. He joined the group when they were doing daily radio work on the popular Farm & Fun Time program which aired over WCYB in Bristol, Virginia/Tennessee. He later worked with Bill Monroe and recorded several selections with him for Decca Records. By the early 1960s, he settled in Baltimore and organized a band of his own. But, when ever the Stanleys were in the area and needed a fill-in, Jack was always ready, usually playing bass and singing an occasional solo -- much as he does on this performance. Carl Hawkins (real name Carl Chatsky) was residing in the Baltimore area in the early '60s and was a fan of the Stanley Brothers and their music. Like Jack Cooke, he, too, filled in on several Stanley Brothers shows. Here he plays mandolin but on others he played bass.

This performance was typical of many that the Stanleys gave that summer. The material consisted predominantly of songs and tunes that had been released in the last year or two. It looks like at least two (and possibly three) sets worth of material were recorded, an afternoon show and an evening one (or two). The afternoon show consisted of the foursome of the Stanley Brothers with George Shuffler and Jack Cooke. The proceedings got under way with an zippy banjo instrumental by Ralph called "Steel Guitar Rag." He apparently intended to record the tune earlier for King Records, and even laid down a few scratch versions at a recording session. However, a formal version was never made. "Old Love Letters" comes from the 1960 album "In Person." "Ridin' That Midnight Train" was recorded as a single for Starday in 1959 and eventually appeared on the album simply titled "The Stanley Brothers," SLP-106. Guest musician Jack Cooke soloed on "Molly And Tenbrooks," a tune he obviously learned from his former boss, Bill Monroe. Jack plays rhythm guitar on this one. "If I Lose" and "Jordan" were, again, fairly recent record releases. "If I Lose," which dates from the 1920s via banjoist Charlie Poole, was recorded by the Stanleys for Starday in 1960; it appeared on the album "Mountain Music Sound," SLP-201. "Jordan" was recorded in 1959 for release on the King album "For The Good People," King-698. Ralph gets to spotlight on "I'm On My Way Back To The Old Home," a Bill Monroe tune from the early 1950s, and "Clinch Mountain Backstep," a banjo instrumental he wrote and recorded for King in 1958. Closing out the first set is a tune Carter Stanley announced on the show as being one he wrote and recorded "about a year ago," "God Gave You To Me." Carter and Ralph recorded it for Starday in May of 1960 for release on the "Mountain Music Sound" album.

The next set gets underway with introductions of the various musicians by Carter Stanley. In his comments, he notes that the sun really came out, indicating that all concerned must have had enjoyable weather for the event. Musically, George Shuffler leads off with a solo called "Willy Roy," a song about a crippled youth that was popularized a decade or so earlier by WWVA Jamboree star Doc Williams. The Stanleys feature one of their recent signature songs, "How Mountain Girls Can Love." The song dates from their first album for King Records in 1958. From the Stanleys third King album, "Everybody's Country Favorites," comes "Next Sunday Darling Is My Birthday." It's probably no coincidence that Carter and Ralph performed this tune on this day as it was Carter's 36th birthday! George Shuffler followed up this by leading a round of "Happy Birthday." One of the Stanley Brothers most recent recordings at the time was "The Window Up Above." It was also a recent release for George Jones as well. Ralph related recently that they learned the song directly from George backstage at a concert in Florida where the two were on the same bill. Next, they recreate one of their classic songs from a decade earlier, "The White Dove." The original 78rpm recording, released on Columbia, featured haunting trio harmonies and expressive mandolin work by Pee Wee Lambert. Carl Hawkins helps to recreate the sound of the original recording by supplying mandolin chops throughout the song. Jack Cooke solos on yet another Bill Monroe song, one entitled "Used To Be." Ralph offers a solo of one of this trademark songs, "Man Of Constant Sorrow." Curiously, it sounds as though someone offers some unison vocals at some point during the song; this seems to provide some comic relief to the other band members. Another of the Stanleys most popular hymns was "Rank Strangers," a song recently released on their Starday album called "Sacred Songs From The Hills."

What appears to possibly have been a third set starts off with George Shuffler doing the folk favorite "On Top Of Old Smoky." With the rising popularity of the folk music movement, songs such as this were often-times performed by various sidemen in the band. Carter introduces "A Few More Years" as a tune from their brand new gospel album, "Old Time Camp Meeting." The song was at least a hundred years old by the time the Stanleys got a hold of it; they give it a fairly modern bluegrassy rendering here. Ralph gets a chance to solo on another of his old-time ballads, this time it's "Pretty Polly." Curiously, he uses a verse to close the song that he never used on any of his recordings, about boarding a ship and the ship striking a rock and sinking. Carl Hawkins showcases one of the classic Stanley instrumentals, "Daybreak In Dixie." It was a mandolin tour-de-force that was written by former band member Bill Napier. "How Far To Little Rock" is the Stanleys re-working of the traditional song "Arkansas Traveler." Ironically, they recorded it as a filler to complete a 1959 recording session for King. It was released on a single and went on to become the only charting record that the Stanley Brothers ever had. It reached the Top 20 country charts. Closing out this set, and the show, is a lightning quick version of the old banjo tune "Cumberland Gap."

Thus ended another fine performance by the Stanley Brothers and their Clinch Mountain Boy (George!!) and guests. In all likelihood, Carter and Ralph departed from New River Ranch following their performance and made the nearly 1,000 mile drive to their home base in Live Oak, Florida. It was a grueling routine and is one we should be thankful they endured to make. Although they gave literally thousands of performances in their twenty years together, precious few have survived via tape to be enjoyed by today's enthusiasts. It is fortunate that this performance is one of the one's to be preserved. The treat is ours to enjoy for years to come.

ZAKIR HUSSAIN • THE SFJAZZ SESSIONS

tells the story of four extraordinary nights (and days) showcasing the formidable talents and genre-bending collaborations of peerless tabla virtuoso/percussionist/composer Zakir Hussain, in concert with some of his favorite musicians. Filmed and recorded in March, 2013, during the historic inaugural season of The San Francisco Jazz Center, these sessions highlight the consummate virtuosity and improvisational genius of one of the world's greatest musicians and the easy, personable charisma which have made Zakir an international celebrity. The presentation of the music is interwoven with insightful interviews, personal commentary and intimate glimpses of life, offstage and backstage, of the phenomenal artists who came together during the sessions.

"Once in a lucky while... you hear music so captivating, so wonderfully arranged that you never heard anything like it before." ...

"the best musical score I have ever heard"

R.H. - Western Massachusetts

"intangible, like the soul of the universe"

A.D. - Palm Beach, Florida

"... you have achieved a sheer romantic sound"

A.G. - American Internet

"...totally enchanting soulful instrumentals"

M.C. - Sao Paulo, Brazil

"...stirring emotions as diverse as the individual listener"

A.P. Palm Beach Gardens, Florida

The instrument sounds and music you are about to hear have been created totally on digital keyboards, composed, arranged, produced, and composed by one man - A.W. Nardi

His audiences in New England, Palm Beach and Brazil have enjoyed his rich orchestral sounds and have asked him to reveal and share his soulfully romantic music... a new musical genre... which he calls "Nouveau". A.W. Nardi has been called the true modern "Renaissance Man", with wide and diversified interests and gifted in many areas.

He lost his hearing at an early age and the love of music that has inspired him has allowed him to deeply inspire others. You are invited to sit back, close your eyes and experience for the first time "Nouveau"

A soft-focus background image showing a person's hands playing a piano. The piano keys are visible, and there are faint, ethereal musical notes floating in the air around the instrument, creating a dreamy and artistic atmosphere.

*Thank You so much for being one
of the first people to experience*

"Nouveau"

*and for your advocacy.
It is wonderful to feel the
new friendships & community*

Vinnie Knight was born in Harlem, New York. Her smooth, velvety, mysterious, angelic voice has the sophistication of the great Sarah Vaughn, the earthiness of Pearl Bailey, and the seductiveness of Billie Holiday.

Ms. Knight has recorded, performed and collaborated with some of the best musicians of the Jazz World. She has performed in Nairobi, Kenya; starred with "Oliver Jackson and the Harlem Big Band of New York"; and toured Germany, Switzerland, Holland, Istanbul Turkey. She was booked on the SS Norway cruise line, starred with the great trumpeter CLARKE TERRY, and performed in Japan at RAPOS NIGHTCLUB with an all-star Japanese orchestra.

She has garnered rave reviews singing the music of DUKE ELLINGTON and Gladys Shelly. DOIN' THINGS FOR HER, (GPRT Records), an original composition by Gladys Shelley, was arranged by Ms. Knight. Zena Records has produced Collectors Editions of SWEET & HOT (songs from the Duke Ellington song book), LIVE IN JAPAN, and I'VE GOTTA BE ME. Ms. Knight has written, directed and produced musical revues as well as performing at many notable venues in New York City and the Hampton Roads areas. Ms. Knight is winner of an AFRAM Artistic Achiever's award for music - voice, 2003.

WARNING:

This is not your ordinary
Acapella Album

The background of the album cover is a photograph of four men in dark suits and white shirts standing on a bridge at night. They are holding hands and looking towards the camera. The bridge has ornate railings and is illuminated by string lights. In the background, a large, illuminated structure, possibly a lighthouse or a tower, is visible against a dark blue sky with a crescent moon. A street lamp is also visible on the right side of the bridge.

THE Delneros

DREAMS
OF DOO WOP

The New Voices of
ACAPPELLA

The Delneros Dreams Of Doo Wop

The Delneros' "Dreams of Doo Wop" project was created out of a friendship formed over the years between myself and Collectables Producer Dennis Pettet. I have had the personal pleasure of recording on the Collectables label for the past six years, starting with Frankie and the Fashions on "Philadelphia" (COL-5731), followed by "The Sound of Acappella, Vol. 1" (COL-6140) and "49th St." (COL-6143). I then recorded "Acappella Serenades" (COL-6152) with the Lafaros.

During the first sessions with Frankie and the Fashions we recorded "Here's That Rainy Day." After we had laid down the five parts, Dennis reminded me that there was a sixth part that was integral to the song. He looked back at me and sang this "...look at my heart" line in a falsetto that just knocked me out! Until then, I had never heard him sing. I said, "Dennis, you must record—you've got a great, unique voice!" The Delneros evolved out of this particular exchange, and now you will all get to hear Dennis' latent talent for yourselves.

The Delneros recorded and released five tracks on "The Sound of Acappella, Vol. 2" (COL-6145). Now it was time to record our own album. "Dreams of Doo Wop" contains eight cover tunes and seven of my own compositions. In addition to my own vocals, several of the songs showcase Dennis' leads. I was delighted to have Dennis sing some of my original songs.

The eight covers that we do for you on this album represent our own interpretations of those original recordings, and each one bears our own unique thumb print. It is our way of feeling or interpreting a lyric or musical phrase without sacrificing the basic integrity of the piece. We sincerely hope that our efforts will meet with your approval, and that all of the songs in this package will bring you many happy moments.

When we were singing on the corners and in the hallways in days gone by, the harmony would fuel our young dreams. This album represents those dreams, "The Dreams of Doo Wop."

—Thanks for listening!
Frank Lafaro

Dennis Pettet extends a very special Thank You to Jerry Greene. Thanks also to Andre Pettet and Jack Hogencamp for their help on this project.

SANDBOXERS: Arnel - Vocals, Gtar Lee Evans - Bass, backing vocals Will Reyes - Gtar, backing vocals Mathew O'Leary - Drums

1. HANDS OF DESIRE ♦ Playing with the Hands Of Desire Scoping out the women on the side Rumping in the sand is what we admire Trying everything that we can find Wanna make a move come alive Every single time a mind sensation Can't you see the tell tale sign All it takes is pure attraction I got the need To release this pressure And plant my seed Into your...

2. LOVE IN A DISTANCE † ♦ Here I am looking at your pictures I sigh then just drift away Filled with emotional confusions Always have been Feeling this way Since the first time I've seen you Although I know It's not the real Wish that I could meet you Then you'll know just how I feel You are the one i'm lookin for Love makes me lose control I need you more and more each day Love in a distance There you are I can see your face Just a glimpse The color of your hair Thoughts of you I just can't erase Tried so hard Oh not to stare Now you seem so much closer Touch my hand as I sing your song Come and hold me so tender I'll be waiting for so long

3. THINK ABOUT IT ‡ Sometimes it's easy Usually hard Everything is crazy And i'm slowly falling apart Trying to forget It's hard letting go Afraid that i'll regret Cause I have nothin to show Who am I kidding Am I fooling myself When I think about it I'm like everybody else Everybody's saying Hey you're wasting your time When I think about it I'm just trying to live my life Sometimes loneliness Can ease the pain If it doesn't get you first or it'll drive you insane Searching for answers Whether I should linger All I can think of It's living that matters

4. PAISLEY CHILDREN † Take a look out the window Tell me what you see See the paisley children Playing in the dark they seem to have everything The party's over and I want to go home The party's over and I feel so alone As they opened the window and went out to join the fun Bill just stayed in his room playing with a gun Saying wake me up in the morning Wake me up when the damage is done Wake me up when it's over Think i'll pass on the fun (chorus) When he was a young boy They promised him the stars But they could never quite bag the goods Now that he's older He knows the meaning of Hell Now that he's older He can do nothing but dwell

5. ONLY INSIDE YOUR HEART ♦ Have you seen what's out of reach Straight in front of you It's in your mind It's in your soul Though it's never true You look all around cuz you're down on the ground Your life is in illusion It's a way to move on whether right or wrong Will you ever fins a solution If I had the chance to keep it inside You know I'd never change But every day I'm tapped on the back and have to rearrange Deep inside What is like a feeling It never lies Always worth believing If only there was a way to hold tight Get out of what is real I'll get off this ride Take my flight Runaway and take my deal Cuz one day I'm up and one day I'm down I have to surrender my heart You see it looks good You see it looks bad and now it's back to the start (chorus) Only, only inside your heart Only, only a`world apart.

Recorded, Engineered & Mastered by Rick Geymont at Big Foot Studios in Fremont, CA. Mixed by Rick Geymont & Sandboxers. All songs written and performed by SANDBOXERS (BMI) except where noted. Drums played by Emi Arika. † Additional background vocals performed by Emi Arika. ♦ Written by Sandboxers & Carlino A. Cecilio (BMI). ‡ Written by Sandboxers & John Bamond. Produced by L. Evans, W. COWBOY DENNIS

You Benedict revolution
I don't take anything seriously
You picked your friends - so use them
Don't ever listen to them
They won't take anything seriously
You got to run where the running is good
You got to wear the right shoes just to be understood
You got to feel when the feeling is gone
To be a man one needs another one
Don't get me wrong - I like the women folk
But they do take the humor from a joke
Hey - don't take what I say so seriously*

(see ya 'round)

Maybe we can catch a game?

(see ya 'round)

Or put another log on the flame?

(see ya 'round)

Don't stare at me - I ain't ashamed

I'm Cowboy Dennis!

(ride 'am cowboy...)

You Are The Music

Rene Goodwin

Special thanks to:

Sharon Ingram for sharing your husband for such long periods and to Kyle and Bianca Ingram for letting their Dad do what he does best.

If you are reading this message, then you are a witness to a dream, my dream, come true, and sharing a moment with me on my spiritual path – my journey in search of me. It has not been an easy journey, but rather one filled with unanticipated experiences which caused emotions ranging from bliss to despair. Many times I have felt as though I had taken three steps forward only to wind up five steps back to square one. What has remained constant throughout the process however, is the form of friends, strangers, chance meetings and other unexplainable happenings. In other words, there are no accidents – there is only the decision to choose to open your heart, to follow your path, and to heal. I share with you my efforts to express myself in the hope that there will be something here that touches you and reminds you that you are not alone. Thank you for letting me into your life – for even just this moment.

Rockin' Chair Oldies

The musical team of BIG TINY LITTLE and JULIE JULES let you relive those "Good Ol' Days."

BIG TINY LITTLE heads the list of best purveyors of Honky Tonk Piano. He not only covers Honky Tonk Piano, but he's a deft handler of Dixieland, Ragtime, Jazz, Country and Blues. He's positively infectious onstage.

Instantly recognizable from his years on the Lawrence Welk show, Tiny continues to amaze with his versatile keyboard performances.

A special ingredient has now been added to Tiny's great talents – stunning singer JULIE JULES. Born to a musical family in New Orleans, Julie as a child sang in many Broadway style revues in the area and later earned her Master's Degree in Music Theory and Composition from Loyala University at New Orleans. Little says that Jules "is the best singer I've heard in a long time – she can do it all: Dixieland, Jazz, Blues and Country."

You will enjoy this recording of "Rockin' Chair Oldies." The Honky Tonk Piano and the great vocal renditions make for a great trip down your musical memory lane.

These two accomplished Irish performers bring out the best in each other and present their live show with vitality and a touch of humor, although they often perform with other backing musicians at live shows, this album is all their own work and displays their fine vocal and multi-instrumental talent; on this album they share with us their creative arrangements in intricate rhythms and melodies woven from their beautiful celtic music.

THE BOY FROM TUPELO

SHAUN NIELSEN

"Shaun was Elvis' favorite singer. Elvis brought such happiness to so many of us with his music. Shaun brought such happiness to Elvis with his music. I have spent many, many hours sitting with Elvis at Graceland, on the road, and in recording studios listening to Shaun sing for him. I believe this to be some of his happiest times. Elvis' spirit surely must have been hovering over Shaun while recording this album, done in total love. He sings so good! It is so touching, it brought such treasured memories to my mind.... this great collection of Elvis' favorite songs by Elvis' favorite singer."

Tom
Sweeney

The Bard Of Ireland

Tom Sweeney is the quintessential Irish entertainer! For nearly twenty years, Tom has travelled the byways of Ireland, the U.S., and Canada, bringing his joyful blend of Irish and Celtic music to audiences from nine to ninety! Steeped in the folklore and history of Irish music, Tom brings a wealth of tradition and humor to every performance.

One review describes Tom this way... "His heart shines still...just tucked up his sleeve a way. In beautiful ballads, and by the sheer act of perpetual song, his voice has risen from baritone to a bright natural tenor any classical artist must envy."

Tom toured the U.S. extensively as the front man and lead signer for the Irish trio "Barley Bree". He has appeared with the group at every major festival throughout North America, including headlining at the famed Milwaukee Irish Fest no less than nine times.

Television has always been a successful medium for Tom. He has appeared on CBS, PBS, and TNN numerous times. He hosted the thirty-six part "Barley Bree Show" on Canadian CTV. Most recently he has appeared on "CBS This Morning" with Harry Smith and Paula Zahn, "The Kelly Show" in Ireland, and "Music City Tonight" with Crooke and Chase on TNN. He has also performed on the BBC and ITV in Ireland, hosted his own radio show on Irish Independent Radio, and appeared in the Canadian television drama series "Windows".

Tom has six albums to date, and has just finished his music video "The Fair Hills Of Ireland" which contains his hit song "Anthem for the Children" and other original works.

Tom Sweeney is the ultimate Irish one man show and truly "The Bard of Ireland."

Tom

1. Little Isle Of Green

(T. Sweeney). There is something about a long summer's day in Ireland that inspires peace and contentment. Some of my own thoughts make up the song.

2. Sea People

(A. Mac Gillivray). A lovely song about the folk who make their living on the sea. From the Pen of my good friend Allistair Mac Gillivray of Cape Breton, Canada.

3. Homes of Donegal

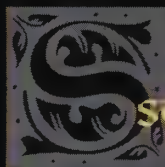

(Trad. P.D.). This was a great favorite at every gathering when I was growing up in Ireland. Donegal possesses the most rugged land and gentle hearts in the country.

4. Do You Think I Do Not Know

(H. Lawson). I've always loved the words of this most tender of love songs. Written by the nineteenth century Australian poet Henry Lawson and learned from the singing of Priscilla Herdman.

5. Between Me And You

(Mc Gee). For many years Walton's Music Galleries in Dublin sponsored a Saturday afternoon program on Irish radio. It became an institution and met it's end only recently. Saturdays aren't the same somehow. This little piece of nonsense was performed regularly by one of the Walton's stalwarts, the great Charlie Mc Gee.

Sweeney

6. Daisy A Day

(J. Strunk). If you listened to a lot of pop music you'd imagine that love was the sole possession of the young. The late, great Jud Strunk knew better and wrote this wonderful song.

7. Tyrone 'Mongst The Bushes

(T. Sweeney). You think of home at the oddest times and places and I wrote this song while looking out over the Atlantic in Marblehead, Massachusetts. For the ones at home.

8. Tie Me Down

(A. Mac Gillivray). I suppose love manifests itself in many ways and sometimes the kindest act of love is tying someone down who might otherwise go off the rails. Love is kind.

9. The Dark Island

(Trad.). Everyone has their own dark island to which they may retreat to find peace and solitude. This song is Scottish and I learned this version from my old friend John Kerr from Kerrykeel in Donegal.

10. Killyburn Brae

(Trad.). The battle of the sexes has been going on for a long time and I'm not sure that it's over yet! Even the devil couldn't handle the woman in this song. An old traditional favorite in Ireland that I learned at school from the Christian Brothers. Education, what?

BEEZEBUBS

CLASSICS

VOLUME ONE

Nowhere else in my life's experience does there exist the cross-generational camaraderie and strong feelings of brotherhood that we share as part of the Beelzebub phenomenon. Each song in this collection will recall an era, perhaps a musical style, masterful humor, colorful experiences, and hard work - and, in turn, faces, personalities, dreams, and love. As I sing your songs and as you sing mine, it becomes clear that there are not simply thirty different years of Beelzebub groups; rather, there is one continuous, glowing harmony of friendship. Brothers in song, sing on! - Tim Vaill

This recording was made possible through the generous donations of:

Gene Blake
Chris Parker
Josh Tane

Don DeLollis
Dave Pratt
Tim Vaill

Mike Miller
Eric Siegal
Chet Webster

Special Thanks to Jim Barrett, Gene Blake, Marty Fernandi, Danny Lichtenfeld, Marty Mahoney, Mark Manassee, Dave Pratt, Bill Stone, Josh Tane, Tim Vaill, Chet Webster, and the 30th Reunion Committee.

In the Arms of Men

Smoke and smoke and smoke around we talk like this is hallowed ground but I don't see no priest here. And jokes and jokes and jokes around but old sad eyes he don't hear a sound, says I look like his daughter. Black and blue and bloody-kneed I said I hope that she don't look like me, but you're a sweetheart.

He said honey I have learned that daughters are a curse, that God gives to bad bad men, who ain't been good to their women.

I tanned I tanned, I tanned her hide and tried to keep her locked inside, but she still got out.
And in the arms, the arms of men, I know she lies her fragile head, but they won't protect her.

(instrumental)

So rounds and rounds and rounds of rounds I asked him if he was home-bound, and if I could follow. He said oh you silly silly thing you make me feel just like a king, but you must have a father.

(Repeat Chorus)

So in his car, his car we prayed there was some kind of saving grace, there to listen.
He drove he drove he drove me home but left me
there all alone, kissed my forehead.

And said honey I have learned that daughters are a gift, that God gives... To dumb old men, to teach how to take care of women.

THE TRITONE SESSIONS

THE TRITONE SESSIONS

This CD is dedicated to the Memory of Rick D, and to Dave Rogers and his family, as well as to all the friends, patrons, promoters and performers... all the crabby co-workers, miscreants, and misanthropes that have come and gone in and out through these doors over the years, sat on these chairs, drank "a special" and then bitched with each other and us, sometimes about work, or your lives, or the world in general. It's also dedicated to those who were here to witness the sometimes amazingly awesome and the sometimes amazingly awful shows that gleefully celebrated all levels of Musical ability, genres, sexual identity and genders. Let's raise a toast to those bizarre off-nights and the wonderfully surreal dementia of trying to figure out WHAT would possibly possess someone to do something like that on a stage.... in front of people... (or probably at times, just the staff.) It's Closing time! See you in some other way, on some other day! - Scott

Ray would like to thank:

First of all God for the talent, the music, the words, my health and the second chance.

My family, friends and fans for keeping the faith.

For all the club owners and agents for keeping the bills paid and food on the table.

Terry Tiller for his patience and ears.

Don Tiller for his believing in me for all these years.

Special thanks to Glen Tart, what a friend you've been!

Last, but not least, my road band for their time and effort on the music and for standing behind me on that stage night after night through the good times and bad and everything in between. Thanks guys, I love ya!

A vintage black and white photograph of a man and a woman with a classic car. The man, on the left, is sitting in the driver's seat of a dark-colored classic car with its door open. He is wearing a dark jacket and holding a double bass. The woman, on the right, is leaning out of the passenger window, wearing a dark hat and a patterned top. The car is parked in front of a large, leafy tree. The text "Chuck Vincent & Shuffle" is written in a stylized font at the top left, and "King of California" is written in a similar font at the bottom right.

Chuck Vincent & Shuffle King of California

After playing football for the University of Miami, Chuck Vincent embarked on his musical journey, soon having one of the hottest nightclub acts in south Florida, during the early to mid-sixties. In 1968, Chuck moved to San Francisco and became bass player and vocalist with the legendary rock band 'Osceola'. The band was nicknamed "The Mad Bombers" by Avalon and Family Dog promoter Chet Helms. Chuck was also co-owner of the popular Bear West Studios.

In 1980, Shuffle was born, and since then two albums have been released on Smoke House Records. In his bass playing career, Chuck Vincent has played with numerous and well known types of groups and musicians, among which were Big Mama Thorton, Chuck Berry, Clara Ward and the Gospel Singers, Doug Kershaw, Chris Hayes, Nicky Hopkins, Taj Mahal, Pee-Wee Ellis, Mark Isham, Johnny Guitar Watson, and Waylon Jennings.

Chucks continues to write in many styles. This particular collection has been described as "California Boogie."

"Thank you" only hints at describing my gratefulness and appreciation for the following people, teachers and guides in my life:

I am extremely fortunate to have had the opportunity to work with the immeasurably skilled Roberta Donnay and David Freiberg on this project. I am bowing deeply in gratitude for your large hearts, integrity and sense of humor!

Major kudos to the crew of talented musicians who shared their talents: Matt Baxter, Doug Harman, Gigi Gonaway and Stuart Hamm are masters! And thanks to the angelic Linda Imperial for lending your voice and space.

Thank you Sri. K. Pattabhi Jois for your life's work and teachings.

Thank you Cate Fields, Allegra Gibson, Margarite Harris, Karen Hildebrand, Susan Ives, Anna Kuperberg, Leigh Marecek, Michelle Mousavi, No Limits for Women in the Arts, Bobbie Rucker, jim saliba, Alice Cornelia Schoenfeld, Matthew Stafford, Sally Stoik, Emily Stucky, John Weissenreider, Peter Whitehead and Gail Williams for support, friendship and shelter in its various guises.

Thank you John Berlinsky, Lea Watkins and the Mill Valley YOGASTUDIO community for innumerable lessons but especially holding the ground for me when I didn't know it existed.

Thank God for everything.

This is dedicated to my family. I love you all.

May peace prevail.

Former lead singer of the world famous Platters

Virgil Gibson

Sings the Oldies

VOLUME TWO

Virgil Gibson

This journey started with a prayer...

Just before Virgil's birth, his mother heard Lena Horn sing "Stormy Weather" on the radio and prayed that her child would be given a 'golden voice'. Virgil believes that prayer was answered.

As a teenager, Virgil greatly admired the world famous Platters and prayed that one day he would be able to sing with them. Virgil believes God "just fixed it" and Virgil became one of the youngest lead singers of the Platters. During the 1960's and 1970's, Virgil performed with the Platters throughout Europe, Asia and Latin America. Virgil also appeared with legendary groups such as the O'Jays, the Drifters and the Coasters and individuals including Bobby Day, Dee Clark and Al Wilson. Virgil was also lead singer for fifteen years with the super-charged Rivingtons.

Virgil's five octave voice is considered rare in the music industry. Decades later, he is a national treasure. His fans feel "no one can bend it like Virgil!" And it is that special sound we remember from our youth that has been captured on this album. These nostalgic favorites bring back personal memories that have been neatly tucked away for decades.

Before each performance and before recording each song on this album, Virgil prays that he is able to touch every heart. He really hopes that prayer is answered.

*When I was a kid, I would lay awake in bed with a radio
and listen to all the great music others had made.
Every now and then, a song would make me wish that someday I could make my own contribution.*

It took me years to realize this dream.

JDK

MUSIC PRODUCTION

Emmy Winner
original music source for television, films and radio

The question I am consistently asked about my job is, "How did you choose a career creating music for film?" The best answer I can give is, I didn't choose it, it chose me.

For as long as I can remember, I have listened more than I have looked. I imagine in some ways, we composers are cursed, because a sound or melody will haunt us until we find a way to release it. These emotional expressions arrive in the form of music. We give them names and numbers, but if they are created with passion, they take on a life of their own. These expressions have become my job.

The collection of samples you hold ranges from full symphonic work to television themes. For more than 20 years, I have been working from New York to London striving to create the most compelling music for picture. My consistent goal is not just to meet my clients' expectations, but to raise that bar and deliver beyond.

I hope that in listening to my music, you hear the passion I would like to put to work for you.

Thanks and Enjoy,

the
vs. the BLUES POLICE

When the Howlers approached the owner of a blues label with a proposal for this album, he answered, "Okay, but you gotta play pure blues, 'cause the blues police will be listening." He was thinking of the blues-purists who judge blues artists by how close they sound to the blues giants of the past—the Three Kings, for instance: Albert, Freddie and B.B.

But the Howlers play the blues their own way, influenced as much by quirky R&B-man Earl King as by the Big Three. The Howlers are all blues veterans—drummer Ricky Carroll toured with Big Mamma Thornton, for instance. But each brings many influences to the blues. For instance, on a few tracks you will hear Dean Forshee's amazing country-based pedal steel guitar work. The Howlers dedicate this album to him. Dean went down with the Alaska Airlines flight in January of 2000 as the Howlers were making this record.

The blues police keep blues on a very short leash. They fear the blues will die if they ever let go, but it won't. It'll continue to grow. The Howlers hear blues in reggae and bop, often in soul and sometimes in rock—and they bring all their influences to this record. They hope that you like everything they play, and if you do, it must be the blues.

The Howlers are:

Bill Mentz	Vocals
Roger Bergen	Guitar
Walter Pope	Keyboards
Rick Carroll	Drums
Emmett "Ike" Eiland	Bass and vocals

The Howlers miss Dean Forshee.

More Songs for People Like You & Me

1.Intro 2. Person Centered Plan (to the tune of Winter Wonderland, words by P. Leidy) 3. Cover of Mouth Magazine (the Shel Silverstein song w/new words by P. Leidy)

If you haven't seen Mouth, it's time you did. I'm not just saying that because they sell my CDs in their "Attitude Catalog", though that is a fine reason to check it out. Mouth is a much needed voice and is always struggling to make ends meet—because they don't take ads and they tell the truth. It'll provoke ya.

Subscribe! mouthmag.com. 4. Don't Wanna Go to Branson

(P. Leidy) 5. Inclusion (P. Leidy) These are some of the people who have taught me about inclusion (too many to list them all here): Kathryn Mazack, Dennis Granzen, Jack Pearpoint and the late great Marsha Forest (inclusion.com), Gary Messinger, John & Connie Lyle O'Brien, Mary Clare Carlson.

6. Corporate America Calling (P. Leidy) 7. People Can't Wait (P. Leidy) 8. I've Got that Borderline Feelin'

(in the Pit of My Stomach) (P. Leidy) 9. Jerry Lewis Blues (P. Leidy,

based on a blues arrangement by Doc Watson) 10. Everybody Has a Gift

(P. Leidy) Thanks to Christine Mayer, who said, "If you're going to work with me, you have to listen to me. And you can't just listen with your ears, because it will go to your head too fast. You have to listen with your whole body. If you listen with your whole self, some of what I say will enter your heart." Thanks also to Tom Kohler, James, Wanda, Phil, Carter, Darwin, Pat, Terry, Sue, Cassie, PC and Dorothy, and a bunch of others, including those mentioned above at #5. 11. You Must Be a Saint (P. Leidy) 12. Whiners

(words by P. Leidy) Dedicated to Scott McCallum. 13.The Bowel Song

(P. Leidy) Bill Schwab, MD, also known as "The greatest doctor and human being in the whole wide world", has not only been a wonderful friend to Options, but has also taught us a lot about bowels and other body parts over the years. This song is inspired by a training he did, during which he shared this universal truth: "Bowels are everything."

A black and white photograph of a man in a classical setting. The man is shirtless, muscular, and has a serious expression, looking down and to his left. He is draped in a heavy, patterned cloth that features large, ornate floral or medallion designs. The cloth is draped over his shoulders and cascades down his body. The background is a classical painting depicting a landscape with a body of water, trees, and a building. The overall style is reminiscent of classical art, possibly a reproduction of a painting or a staged photograph. The text "Le Clan" is overlaid on the left side of the image in a large, white, serif font.

A ROCK'N ROLL
FAIRYTALE

Once upon a time, a girl named Rachel discovered she had a princess inside herself - because, after all, every girl has one. She named her princess, "Princess Bean," and wrote a book for her to live in. But, by mistake, Rachel left the book with Princess Bean in it at the library, where it was put on a shelf with all the other books about princesses.

Princess Bean loves her own story and the dragon and prince who live in it with her; yet more than anything, she loves adventure. One day, just for adventure, Princess Bean decides to get her "Official Princess" license; and in order to get it, she needs to find her cayodle, which is a yodle and song mixed together and every real princess has one. Since there are no cayodles or other princesses in Princess Bean's own book, she asks her dragon and prince to boost her up to the top of the page so she can look into the book of fairy tales next door. [Messy World] Higher and higher they push her until - oops! Princess Bean falls out of her own book and into the story of Cinderella, who mistakes Bean for her fairy godmother. [Bean's Bag] Princess Bean leaves Cinderella to find the mirror in Snow White's story so she can ask his permission to be in the Prettiest Primping Princess Pageant [The Mirror]. Then she hikes into Sleeping Beauty's tale, where she falls for Sleeping Beauty's prince. [Dance on the Bed]

At the Pageant, Princess Bean lets Cinderella tie rocks in her hair and Snow White glue cans on her feet. [Will I Win] Bean causes such an uproar that she is banned from the book of fairytales and tries to go home to her own story, but someone has moved the book of fairytales to a different shelf. [Run, Jump, Play / All Alone]

Scared and hurt, yet willing to do whatever will help her get back to her own book, Princess Bean returns to the pageant and not only finds her cayodle but uses it to save Fairyland from being lost in the kiddie section of the library forever. [Rock the Book] Everyone thanks Princess Bean for saving them and showing what a "real" princess is all about. [Thank You]

A princess unlike any you've ever known -
A recording unlike any you've ever experienced!

Meet Princess Bean - a fun-loving, adventurous, self-proclaimed princess who lives in her own storybook on a library shelf but can jump into any book - and does, bringing magic and mayhem wherever she goes.

When Princess Bean jumps into a book of fairy tales in search of the one thing she needs to get her "Official Princess" license, no one she meets in Fairyland believes she is a real princess. Would a real princess wear pink hair and high tops or dance on Sleeping Beauty's bed or dress Cinderella in cool kicks and hot threads to go to the ball?

No one believes Princess Bean is for real—that is, until she finds her "Real Princess" power and saves Fairyland from a terrible fate.

Princess Bean's Messy World is an exciting story with an empowering message, great rock-n-roll music, and side-splitting lyrics that make it as entertaining and meaningful for grownups as for children.

"It's a great story in a great production with an even greater message."

Lift Him Up

Rev. Lisa Clayton and Judah

To the God of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob, T.A., Viola, Charity and Lisa. Thank you for calling me out of darkness into your marvelous light. Thank you God for Jesus Christ my Savior and Lord and precious gift of the Holy Spirit. To my parents, Mrs. Viola Clayton and the late Presiding Elder Rev. Thomas Alva Clayton, Sr. Mommy, thank you for believing in me. Daddy, thank you for being a trail-blazer. To Al, Wayne, Doris Ann and the rest of the Clayton, Williams-Lindsey Clan, I love you all very much. To my big sister, Chanita, you asked mama and daddy for me and... here I am. Thank you for being a fantastic steward over that for which you asked. Shameze, I love you. To my pastor, Rev. James B. Walker & the Phillips Metropolitan Church Family, thank you for the love, support and the push. Thanks Bishop Charles and Lady Willie Helton for your support. To Judah (the Group, Judafapraise, Judah Ensemble, Jude Praise & Worship) words cannot express how grateful I am to God for all of you. Thank you for loving God and for working so hard. Don't forget Psalms 76:1 and Jude 1:24-25 To Elder Maggie Joyner, thank you for being there. God has used you to teach me so much. Thank You. To Kelly Littlejohn (Simon, Scottie), III this music would be nothing without the anointing and your awesome keyboarding skills. Vincent, our God sent percussionist, Thanks (you know what I'm saying) Rodney, Thanks for the terrific guitar, Mike Walton, thanks for the awesome bass and lead guitar. Mrs. Morehead, you keep lookin' out for me and all of Judah. Thanks Mechelle Dudley, Daphne & Malesha Dowdell. Thanks Pastor Vanesse Burns & the Faith Church Family. Special thanks to the University of Connecticut Voices of Freedom, Paine College, Pastor Chris Johnson, Pastor William Falls. Thanks to Rev. Lori Thomas, Minister Helena Hill, Minister Marlow Smith, Pastor Merchal Monts, Christine Crockett, Pastor Larry & Lady Barbara Hudson, Pastor Larry & Co. - Pastor Sandra Carnes and to all the other pastors and ministers who have supported this ministry.

This musical project couldn't have been possible without the talent and the incredible, beautiful energy of each participant. If the energy produced by them were converted to light, this compact disc could illuminate your life for a long, long time, I can assure you.

Thanks to my family for my upbringing of which I'm very proud of, especially to my mother for being there for me. Te quiero mucho, mucho, mucho.

Special thanks to my best friend Shirley for all she has put into my existence, I love you.

A musical thank you to my friend Juan Pedro Gaffney R., director of Coro Hispano de San Francisco, for the beautiful arrangement of "En la Primera Mañana de Enero."

I dedicate this recording, also, to every person that has given me a smile, hug, kiss and much more.

To all my wonderful friends- I love you all!!! "Xs" & lovers, thanks for the moments.

And a special toast to my new beginning.

"We'll Arise"

words and music by Kathy Ulloa
and the Bethel School Chorus of 2000
arranged by Milton Smith

Verse 1

Mother Nature is powerful to see
She often moves unexpectedly
In a moment least expected the rivers began to rise
The floods rushed in, covered the land, much to our surprise (but)

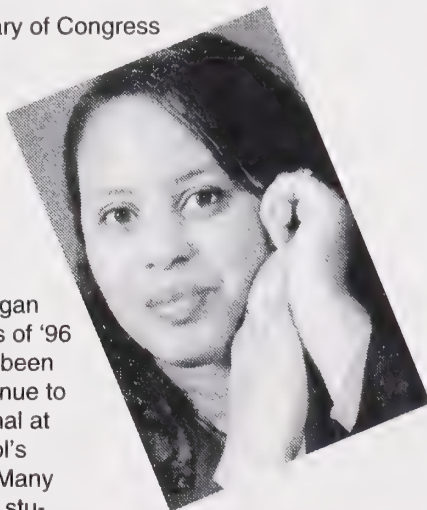

Chorus

We'll arise, we'll restore
We will rebuild again.
Much was lost at such great cost
Together we will stand.
Helping one another cleaning up our coast
Sharing everything we have with people who need it the most.

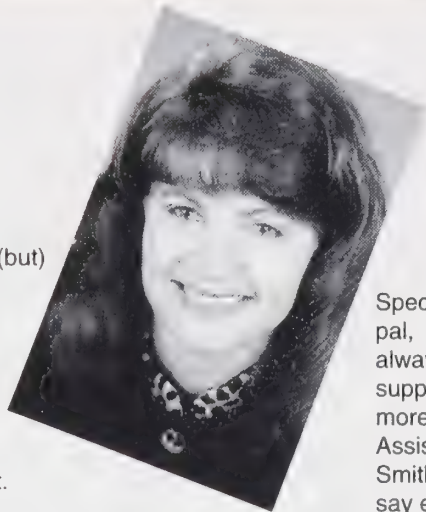

Verse 2

We must continue to clean up our land.
Let's work together helping hand in hand.
Our landfills are getting fuller each and every day.
We must recycle and continue to find a way (for)
Chorus

© 2000 Library of Congress

This song began
with the class of '96
'97 and has been
and will continue to
be inspirational at
Bethel School's
assemblies. Many
thanks to the students, parents, and
especially to God
for making this
dream reality.

Special thanks to our principal, Roscoe Locke, for
always believing in us and for supporting "The Arts" with more than just words. To our
Assistant Principal Jackie
Smithwick, -- what can we
say except --
"You are awesome!"

"We Have The Victory"

words and music by Denise Carmack
arranged by Milton Smith

Verse 1

Our hearts are extended to the place we love the best
Where our lives are being molded to a height above the rest
Where friendships are forever, where there's love and happiness
We are the children of tomorrow and our futures have been blessed

Chorus

For we can climb the highest mountain
We can cross the widest sea
We can go through the deepest valley
With Bethel we have the victory

Verse 2

When you come into our building, when you walk on down our halls
Our doors are hung on hinges that welcome one and all
You'll feel the love that we are given and the pride
throughout the years
Although we'll be happy when we leave here, we'll smile between
our tears

JEWEL OF DENIAL

- Sometimes Sometimes I got it Figured out
 - Free ride to the country side Sometimes I just don't know
 - Take off the rest of the day Sometimes I gotta take a ride
 - Don't break down, or turn around Just sit back, and let go
 - At times you must get away Each day find a new way to fight the struggle within
 - from it all It won't stop til we reach the top
 - No doubt what you're thinking about Can't go back to where we've been before
 - but tell me what's on your mind You care and I'll be there to love to hold and to teach
 - Relax retrace the tracks to a peace So help me and I'll help you to see that it's not so hard
 - we left far behind, to reach the door
 - the wall Just then it started again somehow I must make a choice
 - Sometimes I'm like a prisoner Soft touch I think too much can not quiet the voice
 - Sometimes I feel so free in my head
 - Sometimes have to look around' So too it happens to you but you're much too adept to
 - for the things in front of me give in Great taste no time to waste, we both know that
- that we have to win, or It's dead dead dead*

MINDS EYE

*Oh my mind's eye weaves a story of fairytales and lies, cause I wonder where you are.
Am I just a fool for fools sake, Cause I wonder where you are?
Oh my minds eye has a riddle oh my heart has a pain and I was wondering, does the sun shine?
Does the sky fill up with stars? Does the road end? Does anyone Know where you are?
I often wonder Does the road go anywhere? I often wonder, If the stars are in the night?
And I wonder do you dream? Do you dream of me?
Does my mind's eye tell me lies? Does it tell me lies? Does my mind's eye tell me lies does it tell me
Lies? oh oh oh oh ooooooooooooooooooooooooooooooooooooooooooooooooooooooooooooo
I often wonder does the road go anywhere I often wonder if the stars are in the night and I wonder do you dream? Do you dream of me? oh oh oh oh ooooooooooooooooooooooooooooooooooooo
Wake up in the morning got lots of bills to pay hurry to the car I gotta work today
Hurry to the job then throw it all away, can't stop going anyway,*

This album is dedicated to the many people that have made this dream a reality. I would especially like to thank my family and friends for their love and support. Thanks to all the musicians for making this music sound so good! A very special thanks goes to Phil Polsinelli and Rich Kurtz for their countless hours of hard work, creativity and dedication. Thank you Glenn Barratt for your exceptional work. Finally, to all of you that have attended my concerts, turned your friends on to the music and have given me the encouragement to create and perform my music for you. I thank you for making "DreamWorld" come true.

Dara VanRemoortel

ECHO IN MY PLAYROOM

At wake-up time, dinner time, play time, even in the grocery store, Dara VanRemoortel makes it fun, and encourages children to ask questions like "What's so gross about groceries?" and reflect on the simple things such as the "echo in my playroom" and "sunsets, warm breezes, and pretty butterfly wings".

Echo in My Playroom is a collection of 12 original songs written over the past 10 years. Dara's inspirations include her children Anna and Craig, her husband Chris, and the world (and words) around us!

Join Dara in the "playroom" and find much more to play with than blocks, puzzles, dolls and trains! Come on inside and play!

Engineered and mixed by Brian Maes at Briola Studios.
Produced by Brian Maes at Briola Records.
